

Fact Sheet

Oh Freedom! Exhibit

NJ Division of Parks & Forestry
Office of Historic Sites
501 E. State Street
Trenton, NJ 08625

Web site: www.njparksandforests.org

Contact: Email: ohfreedomexhibit@dep.state.nj.us

Phone: 609-777-0238

Retractable Banner Exhibit:

The banners are on six individual stands. Each banner is 3.5' wide x 6.5' tall. These banners provide layout flexibility in confined spaces. The exhibit must be booked for a minimum of 1 month.

The borrowing institution is responsible for the pick-up and return of the exhibit which is stored at 501 E. State Street, Trenton, 4th floor, NJ Division of Parks & Forestry, Office of Historic Sites. Arrangements for picking up and returning the exhibit are made with the Office of Historic Sites at 609-777-0238.

Each of the six banners has its own carrying case with both a hand-held strap and a shoulder strap. Although the exhibit is designed to allow an individual to install it and take it down, it is recommended two people complete this task.

NOTES:

There are no original documents, artifacts or reproduction objects associated with this exhibit.

Requests are handled on a first-come, first-served basis.

The exhibit should be installed where there is staff oversight.

There is no fee to borrow the exhibit.

Please credit New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, Division of Parks and Forestry in any promotional signs or materials.

Any damage to the exhibit should be reported immediately to the NJ Office of Historic Sites, 609-777-0238.